Will the real pope please stand up!

As these lines are being written in mid-May, 1988, your editor is convinced that the time is drawing near for the confused papal situation in the Catholic Church to be resolved. If you have access to Rev. Herman Bernard Kramer's The Book of Destiny copyrighted in 1955 and reprinted in 1975 by TAN BOOKS AND PUBLISHERS, INC.

John Kosovich took this picture of your editor on Labor Day, Sept. 7, 1987, on our way into Lily Lakes. August 15-20 I plan to lead a few hearty souls on a trek into Lake of the Clouds and over the top of the range into Cotton Lake.

John and I had a beautiful trip including a couple inches of snow our first night.

(P.O. Box 424, Rockford, Ill. 61105), I suggest you read pages 274-300. It is Father Kramer's co-mentary on Chapter XII of the Apocalypse which begins: "And a great sign was seen in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars. She is with child, and crieth out in her travail, and is in the anguish of delivery." According to Father Kramer, the woman is the Catholic Church and the child is a Pope. Was a true Pope elected in 1963 and again in 1978 and forced to remain in seclusion while imposter Popes proceeded to wreak havoc within the Church since the infamous Vatican II Council? One way or another I think we are going to be hearing more about this....

The New Montinian Church

THE NEW MONTINIAN CHURCH is the title of the book written by Rev. Joaquin Saenz y Arriaga, Ph.D., and translated into English by Edgar A. Lucidi, M.D. (410 W. Central Ave., Suite 101, Brea, Calif. 92621). It is 598 pages long, and your editor is just over halfway through it for the first time. The following are some of the sentences I've been highlighting in my copy: "What a contrast between this show, reminiscent of the Constantinian Church, and the entrance of John Baptist Montini as primus inter pares (without his tiara, which had been sent to the New York World's Fair to be publicly sold at auction) into Saint Peter's when he opened Vatican Council II! After this first reception, Paul VI got into his Lincoln limousine and rode downtown. This was the same car he had used in New York in 1965, when he made his famous visit to the United Nations to deliver his deplorable speech, proclaiming that the hope of mankind was in the hands of that assembly dominated by international Jewry.

"...At the time of the Council, I delivered an address in the Holy Office in the presence of Cardinal Ottaviani ... I requested permission to openly put forth the contents of my heart, since my Catholic Faith was being shattered for the first time in my life. Permission was granted, and I spoke quite

A Pontiff Freemason

We have been hearing in the past few years about members of the Vatican who are Freemasons and even the date they were initiated has also been revealed. So it should come as no surprise that there was indeed a Pope who was a Freemason. We speak of Pope Pius IX, whose name before his accession to the Pontificate was Giovanni Ferreti Mastai.

An official Bulletin of the National Grand Orient of Egypt published in Italian and dated Alexandria, March 1876 shows a copy of a certificate issued in 1839 by a Masonic Lodge in Palermo, Italy called "Eternal Union" Lodge a translation of which follows. "Orient of Nuremburg, Lodge of Germanic Loyalty, daughter of the Grand Lodge of Bavaria, working under constitution emanating from the Grand Mother Lodge of the Three Globes of Berlin.

"Our Archives show under No. 13,715 the following document, certified and authenticated in regular and required form, written in Italian, and bearing the great seal of the Grand Lodge Luce Perpetua of Naples.

"We Master Masons of the third degree of Masonry affirm that on this date at the hour of twelve at night we have received in this Lodge the Brother Giovanni Ferretti Mastai, a native of the Pontifical States, who on assuming the oaths of these degrees in the presence of all of us, is now worthy of being received into any Lodge of Master Masons, wherefore we call upon the Lodges of the World to recognize him and to hold him as a genuine and true Mason.

In testimony of the entire truth of the present documents we sign in Palermo, in the profane and civil year 1839 on the fifteenth of August.

"Ne varietur: Giovanni Ferretti Mastai.
"Matteo Chiava, Master of the Lodge.
"Paolo Duplessi, Secretary of the Lodge.
"Sisto Calano, Grand Master, Lodge of Naples.

Later on, he was appointed Apostolic delegate in Uruguay, he appeared in the lodges there in full regaila. This is generally known and accepted as History in South America.

After becoming Pope, Mastai, had a change of mind and came out against the Lodge and this brought about the interference of King Victor Emanuel aided by Garibaldi, a 33rd degree Mason, in overthrowing the temporal power of the Papacy was informed that the Pope when a young man, had been initiated passed and raised in a Masonic Lodge. He therefore caused him to be tried for repeated violations of his oath, found guilty he was expelled and proclamation of his expulsion, signed by Victor Emanuel, King of Italy and Grand Master, was sent all over the Masonic World.

The following members of the Vatican are freemasons, names and iniation dates as follows:

Jesus founded CHURCH —not BOOK —BIBLE after Church

by Father Robert J. Fox.

Jesus Christ did not give us the Bible.

He gave us the Church, and the Church gave us the Bible.

The Bible is a Church book, written by Church men, under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, for the Church's use.

The last part of the New Testament was not written until years after Pentecost when the church was fullly established. The early Christians did not know the Bible as we do.

The Catholic canon of the Old Testament was not firm until about the 5th century, despite some questioning by scholars. It was established by the African Councils of Hippo in 393 and Carthage in 397 and 419, by Pope Innocent I in 405, and by the Council of Florence in 441. It was defined by the Council of Trent in the dogmatic degree, De Canonicis Scripturis (Canons of Scripture), April 8, 1546.

Jesus founded the Church on the Apostles, with Peter as visible head and promised the Church the Holy Spirit as the Spirit of Truth to keep it one in truth. It took the authority of the Church to define which Scriptures were divinely inspired.

Without the Church, we would have no Bible and no authority of God telling us which, among many spurious writings, were authentically the written Word of God.

There is no Biblical or Church teaching which says that each one who reads the Bible is divinely guided to interpret it correctly.

Different interpretations of the Bible have led to hundreds of differing Christian churches, whereas Jesus prayed "that all may be one."

Why the Saint Pius Fraternity of Mgr Lefebvre should be rejected

1. The St. Pius X Fraternity is wrong, when — although considering Mgr Roncalli (Johannes XXIII), Mgr Montini (Paulus VI) and Mgr Woytila (JP II) valid and legitimate popes — it does not act upon their orders. Proceeding this way is schismatic.

The Monsignors mentioned above cannot claim any recognition: They are no longer members of the Roman Catholic Church on account of their pertinacious published heretical positions, incompatible with the 2,000-year-old Tradition of the Church. Cfr.: Pope Paul IV Bull "Cum ex Apostolatus Officio" of February 15, 1559.

They usurp (illigitimately occupy) the administrative office in the Church without any ecclessiastical authority, and can consequently not claim any recognition.

2. The Fraternity is wrong, when it considers the concilar church sacraments valid.

This concilar church attributes to the sacraments a meaning different from the intention Jesus had when He instituted them, which makes these new "sacraments" invalid.

3. The Fraternity is wrong, when it does not ordain its candidates for the Priesthood until after they have declared or signed a document recognizing JP II a valid and legitimate pope, and no longer considering the new sacraments invalid. Those not willing to sign or declare shall not be ordained.

4. Mgr Lefebvre is wrong when he pleads for the Fraternity to be recognized with those in power in the concilar church: in doing so he virtually accepts these men as authorities and officials in what — after all — is anything but the Catholic Church.

5. It is wrong for Mgr Lefebvre and his Fraternity to quietly lead what orthodox faithful are left into the concilar church, to allow them to become its conservative wing. The way it has befallen 70 Benedictines of Flavigny, under the guidance of Dom Augustin-Marie. Meanwhile others are now trampling in the wings to do the same.

6. The Fraternity is wrong in obliging its priests to insert JP II's name in the "Te igitur" of the Canon of the Mass, after where it says "una cum"; offering the Holy Mass in communion with a heretic is a sacrilege. Those sensible enough to be aware of it refused, only to become outcasts, for they were literally cast out.

7. The Fraternity deceives the faithful by recruiting invalidly ordained priests, as e.g. "abbé" Cottard and "father" Terry Marks. This is among other reasons resulted in the exodus of twelve priests from the fraternity in the USA; for, the recognition by the Fraternity of the concilar church policy in view of divorce, as well as the obligation to say John XXIII's mass also accounted.

8. The fraternity is wrong when it opens new Mass-centres in the close vicinity of those already existing in order just to boycott the latter (out of existence), if it cannot simply take them over, thanks to strange substantial financial support.

9. The Fraternity is wrong when it obstructs the functioning of Mass-centres. In August 1984 "pickets," led by Ecône-seminarist Robert Matheus, forcibly prevented the faithful to enter the St Pius V Chapel in Antwerp; and not in Antwerp alone, for similar shameless procedures have also taken place in various towns and cities of all the neighboring countries.

In view of the above already it just cannot be reconciled with one's conscience to ever put one's trust in the Fraternity and Mgr Lefebvre.†

Standing up for the true faith

On Sunday, Oct. 25, Father Oliver Oravec, a refugee from Communist Czechoslovakia, who currently resides in Ontario, Canada, was the guest celbrant at St. Anthonly of Padua Chapel in Livingston, New Jersey. The Chapel's regular priest, Father Paul A. Wickins, was temporarily replacing Father Oravec at some of his traditional Latin Mass locations in Ontario. The New Jersey Times, January 1, 1988, carried a transcript of Father Oravec's sermon that Sunday. There is not space to reproduce it all in the S.D.C.N., but you might enjoy reading the few excerpts from it which follow:

"It was never heard in the church to distinguish Catholics in so many groups. We had just Catholics; we had just the Catholic Mass, and nobody was questioning what kind of Mass. Today we are talking about clown Mass, we are talking about charismatic Mass, we are talking about polka Mass, we are talking about traditional Mass, the novus ordo Mass, novus ordo in Latin, novus ordo in English. This is incredible my dear Brethren. the church is absolutely divided — and what are the results of this destruction of the Church?

HUGE LOSSES

We lost, in the past 20 years, 100,000 Catholic priests. 100,000 Catholic priests either got married or abandoned completely the Catholic faith. We lost 300,000 Catholic nuns.

We never have had in the history of the church so many divorces, or (so called) annulled marriages. We never had Catholic pro-abortion, Catholic pro-gay-rights, etc. etc. It is incredible! It was never in the history such a crisis! Today's theologians, they are trying not just to destroy the Catholic Church, they are trying to undermine all religions, by the evolutionary and revolutionary means ...

My dear Brethren this is a real serious crisis. My point is because we didn't heed the warning of Our Lady of Fatima who very clearly said if you don't make penance, if you don't change your heart, the Russians will spread errors everywhere. We have so many naive Catholics, they are still waiting for those errors.

I say to many Americans, my dear Brethren, Russia has already spread those errors even in your country. Father, how do you mean that? Yes, my dear Brethren, there is no more difference between Communist countries and so called free countries. In Communist countries, Satan is using different methods. In this country the same spirit that is behind communism is using pornography, is using corrupted television, is using false mass media propaganda, is using many other things to destroy true Catholics. The spirit of communism is already here. We can see that even here there are people who live like there is no God. The family value — traditional family — is already broken in your country very seriously. My dear Brethren, Russia has already spread its communistic terror everywhere because we didn't make penance. That's the reason, my dear Brethren, why we are here, why you are here. That's the reason why I can see such a nice number of people here, because you want to be Catholic. I'm convinced that you want to do something for the Church ...

Heresy Everywhere

We have the same people like yourself who are suffering, who are persecuted, who are outcasts, and considered second class Catholics because simply they want to keep our true faith. When somebody asks me "Father, why do you say the Traditional Mass," I just simply say because I want to say the Mass which was said and attended by so many Saints, and by so many Martyrs, who died for the Mass. What crime are we committing? They say you are not obedient to the Bishop, you are not obedient to the pope. My dear Brethren, how can we be obedient, how can Father Wickens be obedient to a bishop who is heretic? It's incredible! How can a Catholic priest be obedient to heretical bishops who don't care about heretics in our schools, who don't care about heretical theologians who are spreading non-Catholic heresies.

I believe in the Canon Law which says once you embrace heresy, you cease to be Catholic. Therefore, don't be afraid of that notion "disobedience/obedience". We don't want to change our religion.

Father Wickens doesn't want to change Catholics — He just wants to remain Roman Catholic. I strongly believe that his suspension is not valid, because it was done by Bishop who is a heretic, and a heretic has no judicial power to suspend a Catholic priest. It is the teaching of the church. Don't be afraid to attend his Mass. I know he's trying to do his best because he loves his church. I met Father Wickens in Armada* and I know he loves the church, he loves the truth. Support him and I know God will reward you. My dear Brethren, God will reward all of you, but at the same time don't be surprised if you have to suffer in your defeat, in your sickness, in your families. We see everywhere suffering in our traditional families. There is everywhere division, some problems.

But my dear Brethren ... exactly why we are here

Families cite advantages of home schooling

Families who are involved in home schooling cite many benefits to this approach. They include:

Focus on academic basics. Parents can be sure that their children will be well grounded in the "3Rs." "Functional illiterates" are unheard of among home-schooled children.

Low student-to-teacher ratio. Home education typically employs the tutorial, one-to-one (or two- or three-to-one) method of instruction, which is generally recognized as a superior form of teaching. In the average classroom, where the ratio is 25 to 1 or even higher, students receive little individualized attention.

Superior curricula, more options. The home school is not locked into using just those textbooks and materials approved by the state or school district. They do not have to use texts that are offensive to their beliefs, and they have access to wide range of programs and publishers.

Promotion of parental values. Since the parents are directly in charge of educating, they need not worry that the school will undermine the values or religious beliefs they are trying to instill in their offspring.

Economics. Most home school programs cost only a fraction of the tuition of most private schools. Many families find home schooling to be also much less expensive than the government schools, where extra curricular activities and the need for a large, trendy wardrobe can be exorbitant.

Greater opportunity for enrichment. Many home schoolers take many more field trips and engage in many more special learning experiences than would be possible with a traditional large school class.

Scheduling flexibility. Home school families are free to schedule field trips, vacation, and special events according to family needs and convenience.

Less peer dominance. Home school students are less susceptible to harmful peer conformity. They develop greater independence and relate better to both younger and older age groups.

Greater family unity. Because home shcooling is a family activity, the bonds of the family are strengthened.

Protection from evil influences. Home schoolers are not exposed to the drugs, violence, crime, foul language, sex education, death education, sensitivity training, psychological manipulation, and the many other harmful influences commonly found in public schools today.†

we want to confess to the whole world that even suffering has a meaning in our lives. The new Catholics they don't want to hear about sufferings today. They want to get rid of all suffering. No my dear Brethren, we must be different, we must accept suffering, which we all have to suffer for our convictions. This is a part of our life. Who wants to get rid of suffering will be punished in Purgatory more, maybe in Hell. Suffering has a great meaning. Even God needs your sacrifices for the conversion of poor sinners. Don't be afraid to make the sacrifice when you have to travel those miles to the Mass."

Germans unfairly slandered

Dear Father:

As a German-American, I must express my rage at this foreign government and the lies they have told concerning my people! In fact, several governments, all co-conspirators, have rendered innocent Germans impotent by media deceptions THIS ENTIRE CENTURY! The Arabs of today have my greatest sympathy because they are suffering from the same mettle minded slanderers that murdered 66 million unarmed Christian citizens by hacking them to death! This was of course the Bolshevik Revolution engineered by Zionist Khazar Nasis! Jew Proselytes, converts of about 1,000 years ago. Although many now have mixed blood, they are still the sons of Japheth-Ashkanaz or Mongels (90 percent), Gog and Magog of the Bible.

Germans, as well as American Jews, which are concerned with this country must start investigating the truth. Jewish writers have already begun to deal with the "Holohoax." They found the Zionists, in particular Kastner, were instrumental in the fate of German Jews, not Germans! Ben Freedman, an American Jew, relates the Germans were the first ethnic group to educate Jews. European Jews came from all over to learn and they "loved" the Germans. He adds, despite all this, Germans have been slandered and smeared by organized Jewry for decades! Also, Lenni Brenner states there are "six million skeletons" in the Zionist closet. Remember too, losers do not write history, and like Arabs today, we have never heard Germany's side as to the world wars which they tried to avoid! We have heard only Communists and certain Jewish claims.

Frankly, I do not blame Jews for all disinformation, since for centuries European governments, and later America, have used Jews as a means for gaining unearned wealth for the aristocrats. When the people realize the goverment is robbing and oppressing them, (through unfair taxes and all manner of rights violations), then only the Jews are blamed. Not this time, decent Jews will not be the scapegoats for the crimes the state performs against the innocent. Then the innocent are said to be guilty, while the guilty are called innocent — in this non-Christian government theocracy that rules the world! Their "thought police" blame the victims for the crimes, using the media as a smoke screen to control and confuse the populace all over the world. Double talk, think and mind.

Furthermore, like the Holocaust of Arabs today, our American taxes and donations have helped Holocaust billions of innocent people in this century alone! It is a mass genocide world-wide. The reason is a simple one, Capitalists—Communists-Zionists become richer off the blood of all mankind, including Jews! All of which is the religion, humanism, where the "state is master, never a father."

It should be obvious, nearly every world leader, especially in America, is a member of at least one secret occult society. These are based on the Kabala, which is Mysticism. The sects' mottos are "death to the animals!" (non-members). And "The end justifies the means." Their foundation is paganism and human sacrifice. Without such knowledge, governments can not be understood by good citizens!

However, the decent people of the world can no longer tolerate despotic control of their lives! This includes the hidden bloody "red" hands of the U.N., W.H.O., W.C.C. and all so-called "benevolent" foundations! And especially the international Jew world bankers which hold this world hostage by criminal usury! These bankers are the head merchants (Canaanites) of deception, slavery, taxes and death! To para-phrase, "They sometimes support wars and sometimes prevent them by refusing loans." Also, you "Buy both sides and you never lose." Results, "The borrower is servant to the lender." Every intelligent Jew will know what I've said here, but Christian sheep will not! Simply because they love Jews more than Jesus Christ! That is the Judeo-Christians do.

Presently, this one-world new-age Satanic government must be banished forever! We the People must awake, place the blame directly where it belongs, starting in the houses of Rothchild, Schiff, Rockefeller and kiss deadly Kissinger (the real angel of death) goodbye! Down with demoncracy, down with Israe-lies and down with the Zionist Occupied Goverment heathens ... ZOG Babylon and its branches. For "My brothers Blood cries out to me, Let My People Go!"

Hail His Victory!

Man has "free-will" to choose

Dear Father Jones,

Enclosed find the February donation. We're starting to have a rainy season now, sure hope we don't get any more snow and mud. From this morning's report (I listen to KOA) sounds as if your area might be in for more snow. That reminds me, I had a talking book set story about the Wet Mountain Valley while Dad was alive and I can not remember the name of it, but the narrator sure made it interesting; also had one of the area round Cortez and along the Colorado River. Since my eyes hurt, maybe I should be getting those books again. Thing is I need more books on the doctrines and canons of the Church, which isn't listed in the catalog. Been reading more articles and there's one thing that NONE of the authors seem to comment on, and that is the legality of the elections of these anti-popes, since the cardinals are mostly the auto-excommunicated infiltrated Jew cardinals. HOW?, Can a legitimate election take place as long as those enemies of Christ hold those positions illegally? That "Motu Proprio" that Montini put in place did away with all the REAL Catholic Cardinals who could vote for a TRUE pope and just left the gang of Judases run things. There's so much I can't understand, as it sounds as if the guns were held to the heads of the REAL Catholic clergy for those enemies of Christ to get away with so mush heresy, also over-ruling so much. I feel Christ is cleansing his Church of the filthy enemy clergy by this overthrow, but maybe I look at it with too practical a mind, and too I guess, so many don't have the faith they should. One of Jimmy's brothers says he believes in God and His Commandments, but says Christ would have to knock at his front door and tell him that the New Order is NOT Christ's REAL Church. He wants a miracle and Christ told the Jews, they wouldn't believe him even if he were to perform a miracle for them. Without Faith, I can see why so many are following the beast (JPII). I feel besides being an anti-pope he's also an anti-Christ. I get a kick outta Fr. Pineda, as he calls JPII a "globetrotter" and "cement kisser". The anti-Christ is to be popular, and this guy is; also it says, "all the world followed the beast in wonder," and look at his American visit, or any of his visits anywhere. He can NOT represent Christ on Earth either, as Christ would NEVER hold services in false churches and synagogues, as this person does. It all boils down that he as well as his predecessors from John XXIII to him were all illegally elected.

Where can a guy get tabulations of the votes and also who voted? I like getting to the bottom of things. Guess, that's why I'm so sold on my TRUE CAtholic FAITH: It has a real and practical base. For the life of me I can't understand WHY?? so many who used to be Catholics can reject Christ's TRUE Church for a false religion. But then we come to another point, and that's man's "Free-will," so that allows man without any interference from God to choose either following Christ and Salvation or the anti-Christ and Hell. I'll close for now and hope all is well with you.

A Pure mind and a simple intention

With two wings a man is lifted up above earthly things: that is, with simplicity and purity ...

If thou intend and seek nothing but the will of God and the profit of thy neighbor thou shalt enjoy interior liberty ...

A pure heart penetrates heaven and hell.

According as everyone is interiorly so he judgeth exteriorly.

If there be joy in the world, certainly the man whose heart is pure enjoys it.

And if there be anywhere tribulation and anguish, an evil conscience feels the most of it. — ROM II.9.

As iron put into the fire loses the rust and becomes all glowing, so a man that turns himself wholly to God puts off his sluggishness and is changed into a new man.

When a man begins to grow lukewarm he is afraid of a little labor and willingly takes external comfort.

But when he begins perfectly to overcome himself and to walk manfully in the way of God, then he makes less account of those things which before he considered burdensome to him.

Imitation, Book II, Ch. 4

clearly in expressing my doubts about Paul VI's ideas and behavior, as well as the Council itself, for it was attempting to impose upon us the new theology that had been previously condemned by Pius XII" ... " It was during the turbulent days of Vatican II that Modernism obtained citizenship in the Catholic Church." ... "In addition, the post-Conciliar age was even worse than the pastoral council itself, for not only were the dogmatic definitions established by previous councils and all previous documents of the Magisterium disregarded, but even the contents of the documents released by Vatican II were surpassed and ignored. Now, then, who are guilty of this internal demolition of the Church? Who have muffled the voices of orthodoxy which, supported by Tradition, strove to defend revealed truth? Why is it, if they were and are so sure of their most unusual demolishing reforms, that they have not granted others the "salvific dialogue," debate or enlightening discussion which they have sought, with shameful servility, from all the enemies of the Catholic Faith? It is impossible to deny the personal and collective complicity of the Church's shepherds, especially the one who is Peter's successor. When, at the beginning of this "auto-demolition" of the Church, I exposed the Head as the main cause of this tragedy, my words caused scandal; it was thought that I had lost my faith."

Health

Sickness, disease and early death are mostly results of ignorance or willful disregard of the laws of health. Persons who break laws are not excused from guilt or punishment by ignorance of the laws they break.

I used to get sick a lot until I took it upon myself to search out and learn a few basic health laws. Now it is mostly a matter of self-discipline in observing these laws. I used to try to include health articles from time to time in this newsletter. Now there is neither time nor space for that. If good health interests you, you will have to do your own research elsewhere. The self-discipline involved in taking care of your health is just part of the overall self-discipline requisite of being a dedicated Christian.

Many Americans, let alone Catholics, are deplorably ignorant of basic health laws. If you are one of those people and are sincere in wanting to do something about it, I suggest you join the National Health Federation, 212 West Foothill Blvd. (P.O. Box 688), Monrovia, Calif. 91016. That will entitle you to a subscription to their monthly Health Freedom News. The keys are contained therein.

Identity

Are you aware that the Jews are not God's chosen people? Have you seen the evidence that America is the land of regathered Israel? Do you know the significance of Jacob's Pillar stone, and where it is today? How would you like to have all your debts cancelled by law every seven years? Will we one day begin paving our streets with gold and have unlimited free energy? (There is some evidence the science is there, only our spiritual condition prevents it from being used.) Will the headquarters for the Catholic Church move someday to the New Jerusalem in the United States? Would you like to see some good research articles on these topics in future issues of the S.D.C.N.?†

"MOUNTAIN BOB" LEASURE AND HIS TRUSTY DOG RONDO LOWER BRUSH CREEK LAKE

St. Margaret Mary's Vision of the Sacred Heart

LETTER TO THE EDITOR:

Several letters to the editor have appeared in the local media in response to the one by Don Wade who responded to one by Charles Fincher who suggested that the people in Israel who identify themselves as "Jews" are still the "chosen people" and have God on their side. Wade calls attention to the fact that these Jews with the help of President Harry Solomon Truman and the arm twisting of the U.N., gave the property, now known as Israel, to the Jews by confiscating said property from other people who have lived thereon since 70 years after the crucifixion of Jesus.

As the result of an excellent public relations job, many of the present day "fundamentalist" Christians have endorsed the line that the Jews are still the "chosen people" and that we should respect this position out of fear of direct punishment from God. This idea is derived from Genesis 12:3 in the Old Testament.

Christians of today should read further and realize that this calling was set aside when the Jews negotiated the crucifiction of Jesus. "He came unto His own and they received him not" (Jn 1:11); "Therefore,...the Kingdom of God will be taken from you and given to a nation bearing the fruits of it" (Mt 21:43); "See, your house is left to you desolate" (Mt 23:38); and..."there will not be a stone left upon a stone." (Mt 24:2)

It would seem that these modern day Christians are treading on thin ice with their approval of this philosophy because it is a contradiction of the "Jesus" story. If these people continue in this line of thinking it is conceivable that the Jews will in fact produce their "Messiah" and then what will those Christians do with Jesus? Will they ask Him to move over and share the Deity with this new Messiah?

Another respondent to the Wade letter, Mike McQuay, who is reported to have been raised a Catholic, took Wade to task and among other things suggested that the Jews "have been kept locked in ghettos...denied basic rights as human beings...and kept from owning property". Anyone who keeps in touch, knows that this is far from the truth, at least in the United States. To mention a few, consider Mr. Tesh, billionaire and owner of CBS, the Annenburgs, personal friends of President and Mrs. Reagan. And let us not forget Ivan Boesky who raped the stock market for an estimated billion dollars. The Jews in the United States are hardly deprived. This might also be the proper time to remember that the American tax payer sends Israel 10 million dollars per day totaling near 4 billion dollars every year. This kind of money will provide every person in Israel with a new home and a complete college education every year on the year. And why does the United States Government allow Jews and only Jews to have dual citizenships... citizens of the United States and also simultaneously Israel? Perhaps the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) should explore this.

In closing it is well to call attention to the Holocaust that we are never allowed to forget. This is not to say or suggest that some Jews did not die in the European concentration camps but most of those people were not Jews. An estimated 55 million people died in Europe during World War II but all we hear about is the Holocaust victims. According to an article in the U.S. News and World report, edited by Mortimer B. Zuckerman, a Jew, June 9, 1986, entitled "Jewish Population Then and Now", the magazine quotes the "American Jewish Yearbook published by American Jewish Committee and Jewish publication Society of America" listing 1,535,000 Jews in the various European countries in 1935 (prior to WW II) and 1,061,000 in 1985. According to the latest estimates there are presently 6,000,000 Jews in New York. Considering the death rate and the birth rate of New York since 1939, this figure of 6 million seems to correspond with the claim of those who "died" in the death camps.

It would seem that those Christians who contend that in the final analysis that the Jews really have the best story should sign up and join the Jewish religion and discontinue referring to themselves as Christians. The other alternative is for the United States Government to declare Israel the 51st state, treat it on par with the other 50 states and save the 10 million dollars per day.

Frozen, bag-wrapped body found on road

Firefighters reel in something fishy on urgent 'man down' call

By Erin Emery
Gazette Telegraph

The rescuers swarmed around a black plastic bag in south Colorado Springs Wednesday morning.

Inside, the victim's eyes were rolled back into the head. The skin was cold and scaly. The body was frozen stiff.

"We immediately checked for vital signs," said firefighter Ron Wright. No heart beat or pulse could be found.

The victim didn't even seem human.

Shortly after 9 a.m., a trio of firefighters had responded to a call of a "man down" and raced to the scene where they found the bag in an intersection.

Wright took the wheel of Engine 11 and Capt. Tom Venn and firefighter Frank Medina jumped aboard.

The fire engine roared through the city's south side — the lights flashed and the siren screamed.

Soon, they came to the scene at Astrozon Boulevard and Middleton Court.

"There was nothing visible, so we continued on to Aerospace Drive where we saw something lying in the street," said Wright. "It was right in the middle of the street in a black, plastic garbage bag."

The firefighters thought horrible thoughts. Ambulance paramedics from St. Francis Hospital were on the scene.

The identity of the victim — a 25-inch German brown trout — was unknown, but officials said they believe it was on the way to a taxidermist when it apparently fell out of a vehicle.

The age of the victim was not known and its next of kin had not been notified late Wednesday.

"We preserved the evidence," Wright said, "It's being held in the freezer at Station 11. I'm sure whoever dropped it wants it back and they can claim it at Station 11."

Avoid the Occasions of Sin

It is wise for every one to profit by experience, recognizing the mistakes of the past, and endeavoring for the future to avoid them. "Those who love danger will perish in it," and those who return to the occasions of sin have no one to blame but themselves when they fall. They should have the strength to say "I will not" and keep their word. If they avoid the company of those who caused them to sin they will not be so apt to repeat their shameful transgressions of the law of God.

This is the lesson we must learn from the Three Wise Men to trust in God always in every place, and under the most discouraging and sorrowful circumstances; and to pray for grace to be like these simple-hearted kings of by-gone day, who asked no questions, but went along trusting.

How To Become a Saint

Do you want to know how to become a saint? Yes? Well, listen, and I will tell you how. No doubt you are already frightened, and feel sure I am going to say it is necessary for you to join some auistere religious community at once, or, at least, begin the practice of heroic penance without delay.

Well, you are mistaken, for I am going to tell you a simple way the way saints are made outside the cloister as well as in. It can be expressed in three words: Fidelity to conscience.

All those who are saved eternally will be saved because of their fidelity to conscience. The only thing you need to do in order to become a saint is to obey your conscience, and God will do the rest... Begin today; and see what a wonderful change it will make in your life. Every time your conscience prompts you to do good, do it; every time it tells you a thing is wrong, don't do it. The chief difference between saints and ordinary Christians is simply this, that they always obey the slightest suggestion of the still small voice, while others do not. This is what St. Paul meant when he said, "Extinguish not the spirit"; for conscience is like a flame, which may be blown out by wilful inattention, and thus man is left, without a guide, to walk in the dark. In such a condition it is utterly impossible to remain long upon the narrow path that leads to the kingdom of heaven.

The Habit Of Prayer

The habit of prayer is no burden to any one, for we can pray worthily at any time, in any place and in any posture. Even the motion of the lips is not necessary; the mind and heart can be engaged in it while we read or converse or go about our daily work. Moreover, prayer produces a delicious feeling of hope and rest in God; and this feeling is worth more than all the happiness that wealth can purchase or the world can give.

If we love Christ we must love His Mother. We must know her in order to know Him.

LETTER

October 3, 1985

Dear Ms. Kelly,

I am very happy indeed to send you herwith the latest issue of the Catholic Cross and would be pleased to see a copy of the Sangre de Cristo Newsnotes. The Catholic Cross was first published in 1971 to provide information about the rights-laws, teachings, Traditions etc. of the Catholic Church and the countless wrongs-evils of the Conciliar Church and thus persuade and encourage people to return to the Traditional Mass and practices of the Catholic Faith which were being continued in the chain of some 30/40 Mass Centres which we had established since early 1970. This was done in conjunction with a Priests' Support Fund I had set up and to which people made a regular small monthly donation.

We later enlisted the first priest ordained at Econe, we already had some others, and eventually handed the organization to him to run in conjunction with the Society of St. Pius Xth. About this time I changed my job and took on extra duties so had no part in the operation of the Mass Centres. I attended a local Centre, served by an old priest, for the next 6 years so had little knowledge of what was being said or done in the other Centres. At the end of the 6 years the Society was given a large house some 100 yards from the Centre I attended. The old priest retired and Society priests served the Centre and then left it in favour of the chapel they had installed in their own house. This was at the end of 1983. In December 1983 I went to our church in London and heard the new Superior of the Society, Fr. Schmidberger, tell us that the N.O.M. is valid, John-Paul is our Pope, and the Conciliar Church is the Catholic Church. I protested but continued to go to the Centre until the Society installed a "priest" ordained in the New Rite. More or less simultaneously I then learned that Mgr. Lefebvre had sacked 9 American priests for wanting to use the Missal of St. Pius Xth and Had ordered the priests of the Society to use the "Mass" rite of John XXIII. My protests went unheeded so I ceased attending Mass Centres served by the Society. I had to do this in any case because the U.K. Superior said, from the pulpit, "Those who do not accept J.P. II as Pope are not wanted in the Mass Centres." This after I had been their co-founder. The people attending these Centres do so because I had recruited them and their friends to the Mass Centre Movement so I considered that I had a duty to inform them of the nature and deceptions of the Society which is now operating them.

For this reason I began the re-issue of the Catholic Cross. I maintain total obedience to the Church I entered at my Baptism and therefore am bound to reject every change initiated by John XXIII and his successors and bound to maintain that since the demise of Pius XIIth the See of Peter has been vacant. If I am wrong then it is because the teaching of Christ in His Church is wrong. Something impossible. I trust that your organization will have much success in defending the Faith.

Yours sincerely and Faithfully-In Cristo,

FID.DEF.
J.M.J.
No. 2, Vol. 7 September 1985

Wilst serving in the Army in World War II a soldier complained to his sergeant that he had not been given the amount of leave to which he was entitled. The sergeant's response was informative, brief, and correct in every way. "We are at war. Leave is a privilege, not a right. You are entitled to nothing more than 27 inches in the ranks." We Catholics, too, are at War-against the Devil. We are entitled to nothing but do have a place within the ranks of those defending Holy Mother Church. We must stand fast if we wish to avert the victory of the Devil and avoid going to Hell. Looking at the world around us, it appears that Evil, in the form of Murders, Strife, Lies, Hatred, Envy, Idolatry, and Filth, is gaining ground and is can be demonstrated and proven, that this is mostly because catholics have not stood fast and obeyed the Laws of the Church. Among these Catholics are vrey many priests who claim to be Traditionalist and are loudly acclaimed as such. We of the Catholic Cross stand immoveable by the Laws of Mother Church and D.V. will always do so, and we affirm now, in the clearest possible language, that those who, knowingly, do not adhere to the commandments of the Church, which are the com mandments of christ, stand in danger of Hell Fire and are no better that judas Iscariot the arch-betrayer. No man, priest, layman, prelate, or pope is entitled to have an opinion about the Laws of the Church except that they must be obeyed. He is not entitled to choose to obey some and reject others. He is not entitled, or obliged, to follow the leadership of any Superior who does so. The Church proclaims "He who rejects one dogma rejects them all." The central dogma of the Church is belief in, and celebration of, the Holy Sacrifice of Calvary - the Mass. "Take away the Mass and you take away the Church" is, or used to be, a well known percent of our Faith. the ONLY valid, legal, and true rite to be used for the celebration of Mass is the one contained in the Missal of St. Pius Vth. It was made obligatory and declared unchangeable "FOR ALL TIME" in the LAW "Quo Primum" promulgated by him. That is the one to which we adhere. Those priests who wilfully depart from it, especially by using the UNLAWFUL changed, canon and rite of John XXIII, "the Father of Apostasy", are law-breakers, "Thieves and Robbers." The latter because they deliberately deceive ignorant Catholics. We reproduce this Law, "Quo Primum" in this issue and defy ANYONE to contradict our interpretation of its provisions. INFALLIBLE PROVISIONS STILL BINDING THE CHURCH AFTER 400 YEARS.

THIEVES & ROBBERS - AND DAMNED LIARS

Just as the Catholic Church is the Creation of Christ so the Conciliar Church is the Creation of Anti-Christ. Christ is Truth. Anti-Christ is the Father of Lies. Those who serve Christ serve Truth. Those who serve the Conciliar Church-even by merely accepting it or conceding that it has complete or partial authority over Catholics-are liars against the Holy Ghost and will be damned FOREVER as our Lord tells us in Mathew XII.32. If a priest offers the "Mass" of the Conciliar Church it is impossible to deny that he is rejecting the Mass of the Catholic Church-APOSTASING-and if he offers both alternately he is GUILTY OF THE HERESY OF INDIFFERENTISM. ANYONE can see that they are not the same thing; in performance or Intention. IT IS A LIE TO MAINTAIN THAT THEY ARE THE SAME THING. If they are the same, why should one be labelled "New Order" and why whould it be introduced and used TO THE EXCLUSION OF THE OTHER?? In the following pages we reproduce the document with which J.B. Montini (Paul VI) sought to deceive Catholics, bring in his New Order and, thus, turn the Catholic people away from their age-old True Worship of God in the Mass and into his own religion of the Worship of Man. This document is deceitful and a Pack of LIES from start to finish as we shall demonstrate and PROVE. To begin with, it is issued by a man who was never Pope; an impostor who gained the title by scheming and false pretences. (we have proven this and shown how it was done in earlier issues of the Catholic Cross). He FALSELY claims that the document is valid because it is a decree of the Second Vatican Council. Apart from the indisputable fact that this assembly was never a Council of the Church, being subject to the veto of the Soviet Union and called together by a Masonic, and APOSTATE, NON-POPE-John XXIII-, among other things, its Catholic members were deceived and tricked, by double-talk, rigged voting procedures, and blackmailing demands for blind obedience etc, into assenting to the "good" parts of ambiguous propositions and ignoring those parts which were downright heretical or doubtful.

In Para 1 of the document Montini sets the trap and lulls suspicion by praising the Missal of Pope St. Pius Vth.

In Para 2 he praises its effect which he calls "liturgical renewal" (A LIE) showing clearly (A LIE) that the Missal must be revised. (A LIE) He insinuates that Pius XII would have changed the Mass had he lived. (A LIE).

In Para 3 HE LIES AGAIN, twisting selected quotations to support his LIEING assertion that the Council wanted a new Mass. In fact the members decreed that the Mass should NOT be changed but that the people should be helped to understand it better. In 3 and 4 he talks about "enriching" the Liturgy-in other words CHANGING THE MASS. HE LIED when assuming Peter's Chair because he SWORE AN OATH ON THE GOSPELS TO ALMIGHTY GOD, that he would CHANGE NOTHING. HE LIED at his ordination when he SWORE to accept and follow the decrees of the Council of Trent-responsible for the Missal of St. Pius Vth-and the First Vatican Council, whose decrees said, in effect, that the act and Law made by St. Pius was infallible and MUST BE OBEYED BY ALL CATHOLICS. HE LIED and was GUILTY OF HERESY when he claimed that MEN can enrich (improve) a Sacramental Rite received from God at the hands of His Vicar St. Pius, because this can only mean that he places MAN above God. In making this assertion he reveals here, and on countless other occasions, that he is not a Catholic-a Christian-but a Pantheist-a worshipper of Man. THIS is the RELIGION of his Conciliar Church and we can see its fruits in once-Catholic parish churches today.

HE LIED when he claimed that his New Order stemmed from the Council. He used it (Schismatically) when Archbishop of Milan.
Montini LIED and exposed his HERESY when he stated that the Church MUST adapt to the World-"to the present-day mentality". Our Lord told us "My Kingdom is NOT of THIS World." His Church, with all its Teachings, was founded for all time; with the intention of trying to persuade the World to adapt to Christ.
Montini LIED when he implied that the Holy Ghost had not been giving the Church perfect guidance over the past 400 years and had left it to him, Montini, to up-date and "enrich" its Liturgy. We can all see the moral bankruptcy of society resulting from his "enrichments." HE LIED in claiming that his New Order would arouse a "hunger for the Word of God" in the people. His Conciliar Church has taken the Word of God out of the parish churches and replaced it with False Translation - LIES - and the people even his so-called priests - do NOT hunger for something of whose existence they know nothing. HE LIED in pretending that his document has the force of Law such as that possessed by "Quo Primum." In the latter, St. Pius Vth ORDERED that his Missal should be used freely universally, and unchanged FOREVER; and prescribed punishments and Anathemas for those who disobeyed his COMMAND. A LAW WITHOUT PENALTIES IS NO LAW. Montini's document has no penalties for non-observance. In Para 13 Montini says he "wishes to give the force of Law to his document" i.e. he DOES NOT ORDER THAT IT BE OBEYED-a WISH IS NOT AN ORDER-and furthermore, in the same paragraph, says that the document "leaves room for variations and adaptations" to be made to what it prescribes. In other words, UNDER THE PRETENCE OF IMPOSING A FIXED RITE FOR THE OFFERING OF MASS, HE, IN FACT, DECLARED THAT THERE IS TO BE NO FIXED RITE. He LIED, EVEN TO HIMSELF. A master-piece of camouflage, LIES and DECEPTION; undoubtedly inspired by the Father of Lies himself; well represented and, identifiable in the persons of J.B. Montini (Paul VI), Roncalli, his agent, (John XXIII), Albino Luciani (John-Paul I) and the unspeakable, dirt-kissing actor and Muslim convert, Karol Wojtyla (John-Paul II).
To them, and ALL their self-binded apologists, including those members of the Society of St. Pius Xth and their associates, who publicly proclaim their acceptance of the authority of the Conciliar Church as the True Catholic Church of Christ, and to those members and associates who, worse still, attempt to deceive the Faithful by saying nothing on the subject, WE say, undoubtedly with the concurrene of St. Pius Vth and St. Pius Xth in Heaven, ANATHEMA SIT. "THERE WILL BE WEEPING AND GNASHING OF TEETH."

Major Leonard Hurst R.I.P.

From Father Oswald Baker's Bulletin in England we learned of the death of one of the Catholic Church's modern heroes.

"He gave himself up entirely to the love of Jesus Christ. Whatever he knew to be pleasing to Jesus Christ that he did. He sacrificed everything which could separate him from Jesus Christ. He loved Jesus Christ so ardently that he won others to join him in serving Jesus Christ." This was a hagiographer's epitome of the character of Ignatius Loyola. It can be repeated for another soldier, Major Leonard Hurst.

As an intelligence officer in World War II he carried out, single handed, exploits behind the enemy lines which but for their permanent secrecy would have earned him multiple awards for conspicuous gallantry.

He left the army in 1947. Six years later he set out on his road to Damascus. It took him by St. Mary's Church, West Croydon. On an impulse he went in, and found the priest, almost as if expecting him. Instructions were arranged and straightway he was home, even before he was received (1953). He had a profound love for the Mass and Benediction, the Rosary and the Stations of the Cross. He became a member of the Blessed Sacrament Guild.

When disaster struck, he was one of the first members of the Latin Mass Society. Beginning in 1970 he organized a number of Mass centres, and in Conjunction with Mrs. Margaret Kenworthy-Brown set up the Catholic Priests Support Fund. In order to publicize the Fund, and to spread the information concerning the dangerous innovations being imposed on Catholics, he produced a newsletter, "The Catholic Cross." His keen intellect, his wide reading, and his immense love for the Faith, amply qualified him to engage in controversial correspondence with all grades of prelates of the new Conciliar Church. His letters were as courteous as they were forceful. All who knew him will agree that by this time, notwithstanding his reserve and self-effacement, his extensive influence made him the leading Catholic layman in the country. Constantly he based his defense of tradition on St. Pius X's "Pascendi," and the "Ottaviani Intervention." In his love and defense of the Papacy he rivalled St. Thomas More.

This inadequate tribute is limited by our bulletin space. In September 1987, Major and Mrs. Hurst moved to Downham Market, for the benefit of the Mass, which they attended daily. At the moment of daily reception of his Lord, his countenance can only be described as heavenly. He recited the 15 mysteries of the Rosary daily. He recently inserted an advertisement in the Downham Market Gazette, notifying Catholics that the true Mass and Benediction were available locally. On Palm Sunday, March 27, 1988, at Mass in St. Pius V Oratory, he read the Passion in English to the congregation. Towards the end of the reading he collapsed and expired on the spot. He died as he lived, with the Gospel on his lips. Kneeling over him, his devout widow quietly exclaimed, "What a lovely way to go." He was 76. He is mourned by his widow, four children and nine grandchildren. May he rest in peace.†

Consecrating Catholic Bishops

Extract from BONUM CERTAMEN, bi-monthly periodical, published by the Rev. Fr. Henri Mouraux, 69, Rue du Maréchal Oudinot, F-54000 Nancy, France.

Translated by Mrs. Heidi Hagen

A bishop who remained Catholic, can he and must he, without concilar authorization, CONSECRATE CATHOLIC BISHOPS VALIDLY AND LICITLY?

In order to reply to this anxious question on which depends both the survival of the Fraternity of St. Pius X as well as that of the entire Catholicism, as instituted by Our Lord, we have to examine, after a glance at history, on the one hand the situation of the Church when she was in order under a legitimate pope, and, on the other hand, what she has become under three liberal pontiffs.

Ambrose, governor of Liguria and Emilia, under the emperor Valerian, arrives in Milan just at the moment of the bishop's death; the people rush to the polls to elect his successor, Ambrose goes to the assembly and exhorts the Faithful to choose a saint bishop. ... He was still speaking when a child cries out: "Ambrose bishop." the whole assembly, as if seized by a divine force, repeats with one voice: "Ambrose bishop ..." Yet Ambrose was still a pagan ... . In front of the popular clamours scanning his name, Ambrose takes the flight .... He is discovered hidden, on the country-side, with a friend called Leonce ... At the order of the governor Anicus Probus, Ambrose is baptized, ordained priest and consecrated bishop of Milan where not only is he climbing all the steps to saintliness but becoming an illustrious doctor of the church.

This event reminds us that for centuries, apart from the region near Rome, the pope left the choice of the bishops to the local Communities. In so doing, they followed what took place at the election to the episcopate of St. Mathias. This replacement of Judas was, in fact, not designated by St. Peter, although pope and, present, but by the assembly of the Faithful, composed of 120 persons (Acts 1 — 15/26). Likewise, St. Paul wrote to Bishop Titus: "I have left you in Crete, so that you establish bishops" (Ancients in the text). (Titus 1,5). The manner of the episcopal choices has varied throughout the centuries: At one time it was incumbent on the bishops of the province, at another time on the canons, sometimes on the lay princes. By way of illustration, the Concrodant concluded between Leo X and Francis 1st confided to the king the episcopal choices. Rome only reserved itself the right to give the canonical investiture which was practically impossible to be refused. But due to the social upheavals following the revolution, the popes will be obliged to withdraw from the goverments, which have become atheistic, the choice of the bishops.

As a consequence of this state of affairs, the Code of the Canon Law published by Benedict XV, Canon 953, inflicts total suspension on a bishop who confers the episcopal consecration to a priest, and on this priest himself, if this episcopal consecration is given without the authorization of the Sovereign Pontiff .... On 29 June 1958, Pius XII, when learning that Communist Priests were consecrated in China, ordered that the consecrating bishops and those consecrated incur the special excommunication reserved to the holy Father .... Here we must note the difference between the punishment provided by the Code, which is only a "total suspension" (this means a vindicative sanction from which one is relieved by the absolution), and the excommunication inflicted by Pius XII which he alone could absolve.

This difference of nature between the two punishments is a light. The sanction of the Code aims at putting a barrier with a view to ensuring order and discipline in the clergy; to ensure its unity by obedience. The Sovereign Pontiff considers it not as an attribute of his sacramental charge, but given in his capacity of CHIEF of the Church to whom obedience is due. The sanction provided for by Pius XII relates to the contrary to the Faith and Salvation, and for this reason it entails the excommunication, namely the exclusion from the church.

However, since the seat of Peter has been occupied by liberal pontiffs, the episcopacy is being confided by them to unworthy types such as Gaillot* and Rozier, to Semites who deny that the Ancient Alliance was abolished, and who "await the Messiah with the Jews." Moreover, the episcopal nominations are controlled by a pro-communist prelate at the vatican, Silvestrini, etc. etc. All these convergent signs show clearly that the respect of a law made to safeguard the orthodoxy of the bishops, becomes, in the present state of the Church, the ideal means of subverting the Catholicism.

The Church is in danger of death, because deprived of real bishops, and delivered to bishops who are unworthy, impious or lax in their duty to suffer for the Faith … . This situation has already happened in the Church at the time of the Arianism … . Also, St. Eusébe of Samosate, in the IV century, clothed as a soldier, a helmet on his head so as not to be recognized by the heretics, visited the churches devasted by the arianism, and without mandate of the pope, re-established the catholic hierarchy by giving good bishops to the people … .

We must not, in fact, forget that a human law, even Ecclesiastical, such as the one of Canon 953, could not foresee all the circumstances in which it would be applied. Hence the rule of the equity which transcends the letter of the law in order to rejoin the thought of the legislator. After all the ancient lawyers, St. Thomas formulates it like that: When the literal application of the la leads to acts opposed to the thinking of the legislator, the letter of the law has to be neglected in order to rejoin the thinking of the legislator. Let us illustrate this by an example: A farmer has borrowed a gun from a hunter in order to get rid of the wild boars which ravage his fields. The arm has been lent to him on the condition that it be returned, without fail, on the following Sunday in the morning. But when the farmer arrives to give the gun back, he finds its owner in a complete crisis of madness … . To return the gun to him, in order to keep his promise, would be a crime … . The virtue of prudence urges him not to fulfill his promise before the sick man has recovered… .

If, therefore, a bishop who remained Catholic, consecrates good bishops, let no one brandish Canon 1325 (2) and cry out schism! All must know (with the Decree of Gratian) "That a schismatic pope is one who refuses to adhere to the Constitutions fixed by Christ and to the Tradition received from the Apostles." Let us retian the words of St. Peter: "It is better to obey God than men," even if one of these men happens to be on the throne of St. Peter, which he occupies by wearing on his forehead the satanic sign of Tilak … .†

Eddie and Vivian Jones of Delta, Colorado, help Dr. Jensen measure the eight-foot scapula (shoulder blade) of the world's largest dinosaur he affectionately calls "Supersaurus." The Joneses led Dr. Jensen to the mountain in 1971 where he found this huge bone and many others belonging to unknown dinosaurs.

Memorial

Tribute is hereby paid to the late Daniel E. "Eddie" Jones, of Delta, Colorado, on behalf of the discipline of Vertebrate Paleontology and in particular, those workers and students interested in dinosaurs. All will be forever indebted to his efforts as a tireless bone prospector.

"Eddie," with his wife Vivian as his constant companion, over a period of more than 20 years, made the greatest basic contribution to the renewal of dinosaur studies occurring in the last half-century. Because of the productive localities they discovered and contributed to science, an exciting new group of fossil vertebrates were uncovered, including the "world's largest" dinosaurs and new flying reptiles. These received wide international media exposure catapulting many eager young minds into the beginning flush of great dinosaur renaissance. Elementary school children, excited over new dinosaurs from the Jones's discoveries of the 60s, are now professional Vertebrate Paleontologists, judging from this writer's 25-year accumulation of thousands of letters.

"Eddie" and Vivian's persistant hard toil over many rough mountain ridges, and exhausting hot dry badlands, will continue to pay scientific dividends for many years of dinosaur research in the future, while thousands of bones, in localities they discovered, remain to be collected and studied. In 1985 two new sauropod dinosaurs were named in their honor: Dystylosaurus edwini and Supersaurus viviane.

Letters to the Editor

Men of God not bound by secret

Dear Father Jones,

Thank you so much for sending all those publications on to me so quickly. I really appreciate it.

Also may I foolishly ask a question concerning your December 1987, #55 Newsnotes?

The article I refer to is on Cardinal Siri ...

How could any man who is serving Almighty God and is here for the primary reason to bring souls to Christ and to preserve Christ's Church and all truth. How pray tell, can he say:

"I am bound by the secret"?

He's bound by a secret — that is so silly.

If he's bound by a secret then he'd have to be a free mason or belong to the illuminati ... because no man who works for God can belong to any secret society of any kind.

Now if this person is truly of God — he would have shouted to the world the truth — no man of God would say "I am bound by the secret."

A man of God would be willing to die at a moment's notice. I mean really Father — that's so silly. Maybe it appeals to people 20 years ago and maybe it appeals to the elderly today who still hope and pray and believe that all is well in Rome, when we know it's not so. but for a Cardinal to say "I am bound by the secret" — I merely say nonsense. He has to be an enemy if he's bound by a secret ...

Sincerely,
Mrs. Baluck

Traditional movement in "confusion"

Dear Father Jones,

... The traditional movement is made up of a much larger variety of priests (and non-priests) than I ever originally expected. It is a real study in confusion. With this present job as director for the TRC (Tridentine Rite Conference — shortened for the longer title) I have to hesitate presuming things to be as secure as they once were in former timers. Then our blind spot was that authentic priests were equally dedicated to Christ, even though they were not equally holy. We suffer from illusions. And today, even more so. Do we have the time and expertise to check everything out? And if we do, what decision are we then to make? That is our problem here ...

Now, also given the nature of the Sangre de Cristo Newsnotes, as it has developed over the years, it is definitely an extension of your own philosophy of putting together a successful publication in the Traditional field. While you include controversial material, you also present material found nowhere else. For that reason it is sought out for that information that might inconspicuously appear out of nowhere, such as the Siri article. So, you — as far as you have been accepted in this field of readership — are a sui generis editor of unusual style, orthodox and unorthodox at the same time. For those of us who know you personally, we have no difficulty adjusting to some of the unusual things that sometimes appear in your publication. (No offense intended.) It is one publication that is read from cover to cover because it contains the element of the unexpected. And reactions, of course, vary, as your correspondence shows (I remember one irate lady who objected to your including one of my "Considerations" reprints in your newsletter) ...

Fraternally,
